ACTIVITY LEVEL

These trips do require a level of mobility, as most of the tours are walking tours (walking on cobblestone streets, some stairs). Though portable wheelchairs and scooters can be collapsed and stored in the lobby of the riverboat, they cannot be driven to your cabins or other parts of the ship. They may only be used on tours, and that can be difficult because of the cobblestone streets, stairwells and need to lift them up on curbs. If you do have limited mobility, you are required to travel with someone who can assist you.
